

"Many of you know my story about growing up in our family's Sunoco Gas Station. Between my Grandfather and my Dad, the Sunoco operated for over 50 years on the same corner. As a kid, I would listen to the old timers tell me how great my Grandfather was. I would hear story after story and sometimes the same story over and over again. As I grew up, the stories changed to how great a guy my Dad is, and what he did to help them when they really needed him. "He came out on a holiday to jump start my car." "He came out in two feet of snow to get me going." On and on. As a child and as a teenager, these stories made a huge impression on me. These people didn't have to say anything at all, but, they wanted to tell me about how my Grandfather and my Dad were there to help when they were needed the most. Over 40 years ago, I knew that I wanted to live the kind of life where people would want to talk about me in a good way."

WE LIKE TO CALL THIS OUR “WALL OF FAME” BOOK.

A long time ago, we used to keep a real “Wall of Fame” in the office. Each person would proudly display all of their cards, letters and tokens of appreciation that they received from our clients. The wall filled up quickly, and employee morale was through the roof. People were competing with one another to provide amazing service to our clients. Every time a new card or letter came in, that person had bragging rights until the next one came in. It did as much for all of us at the firm as it did for the individual because we all celebrated together.

Unfortunately, we couldn’t show these to our clients because of client privacy. As the firm grew, and we needed that wall, the cards and letters came down, but our celebrations continued because more and more of the testimonials began to come in via email. Today, many of our clients (“family members”) provide testimonials to public websites, like Google, AVVO, Yelp, Facebook and Justia. They willingly share their stories with the public because they are so happy with the firm and our team members. Some choose to remain anonymous, and that is fine with us.

A few months ago another Attorney accused me of faking testimonials because, in his opinion, “we had way too many.” I cannot tell you what I said in response, but I did think about his comments. I asked myself two questions:

- 1) Do people expect to be treated poorly by their Attorneys?
- 2) Do potential clients see too many amazing reviews of a law firm as a bad thing?

Based upon our answers to these questions, we decided to revamp our Testimonials Page on our website. Once again, we turned a negative into a positive. We gladly tell everyone where the testimonials come from. In order to make it easier for you to verify the information. Also, we want you to know that there are still Ethical and Honorable Attorneys out there who want to build a relationship with their clients that will last much longer than the matter that we are handling. Therefore, we added a link to almost every one of our testimonials on our website so that anyone can verify them! We have nothing to hide.

“It wasn’t easy deciding, at my age of 60, to file a bankruptcy. And my experience with attorneys is that they know so little of psychology, that they are so insensitive to their individual client’s feelings - mostly fear and shame. My experience with Dellutri Law Group - Mr. Lambert, Mr. Dellutri, Sheila and Lauren - was all the opposite of that. I am admittedly a difficult client, but they never were mad, never cold - They are very sensitive to the shame and anger that bankruptcy clients normally have and they treat you with respect, dignity, and kindness. I feel so fortunate to have found them and would recommend them without hesitation or reservation.”

"I completely trust Carmen and the rest of the attorneys at The Dellutri Law group. Carmen cares about his clients and works hard to provide the best representation for them. Unlike some other attorneys, Carmen puts the interests of his clients first. I would not hesitate to use Carmen again in the future or recommend him to anyone I know."

After receiving no help from my auto insurer and being turned over to collection for these bills a friend told us to go to Dellutri law. Mr. Dellutri greeted us and brought in another attorney Amanda. They have not charged us one cent for all their hard work. They had all my bills paid and referred me to an Ortho Doctor for my injuries. For everyone in this office we thank you for your service."*

“I would have never guessed I'd find myself in need of a lawyer to file a Bankruptcy. It has been hands down, one of the hardest decisions I have had to make. As the collection notices began piling up, the harassing calls from creditors, I had no choice. I began by searching Google reviews and found a ton of good reviews on this office. People posting these reviews of their success with Carmen Dellutri using their full name. I couldn't help but to be embarrassed walking into the doors of Mr. Dellutri's office. Everyone there clearly knew I have failed...I have failed to fulfill my financial obligations. The process itself is not fun (lots of paperwork to no fault of this team, but more-so what is required now by the federal government), but I was treated with kindness and respect the entire time. His entire staff knows the process inside and out, and is willing to help in any way they can. They made certain numerous times after I had filed that I was no longer receiving harassing phone calls. If you find yourself in this situation, and you need a lawyers, Dellutri Law Group comes highly recommended by many clients, myself included. I am very grateful for their constant communication and follow up during such a stressful time. Mr. Dellutri himself sat through my 341 meeting with me, and even spoke with me for quite some time after the meeting to answer any further questions or concerns... not once checking his watch or phone. Thank you for all you have done for me and my family.”

W.H.

*“I want to thank you and everyone at Dellutri Law for all the support, answers to my questions, and helping me through this very difficult and often times emotional journey. “Writing a review is not something that I usually do. But, regarding the Dellutri Law Group - especially Carmen - I felt a need. I have used this group twice now and If you can understand “they are old school!” You get to speak with the person who you have retained. I cannot tell you how relaxed I felt when I would get an update or fact info call from Carmen himself. I felt fully protected and informed throughout the procedure. At a time when we all need comfort and understanding this firm is where to go. I fully trusted Carmen and his group without any doubt. The results I received were exactly as predicted and I am very thankful to have found these people. I hope you share a similar experience!”

“Dellutri Law Firm is simply the best. The lawyers and staff all have a level of integrity and professionalism I have never experienced before. They will make you feel positive about a less than desirable time in your life. When my husband was laid off, we lost our home, were buried in debt and to add insult to injury the first lawyer we went to made us feel like low lives. It was just awful. But after hearing Mr. Dellutri on a local radio channel I gathered up the nerve to call in and ask him a few things. Especially the things the previous lawyer told us. He simply said, “Give me a chance. I know I can help.” And he did. I can’t say enough about this firm. They were there for us in the beginning and have been ever since. They won’t forget you. They will answer your calls and emails. I promise you - this firm is the best.”

B.R.

“Dave Lampley with Dellutri Law is phenomenal. I personally have not used his service, however I have sent several of my client to his firm for his help and they always have great things to say about him and his firm. I have also worked directly with some of his client and they sing his praises. He always takes the extra time to help put his clients at ease through this confusing and complicated time for their lives and goes above and beyond to help them through their questions and concerns long after the work is done. I will most certainly continue to send my clients to him as I know he will continue to do a stellar job with them. It is great to know an attorney that takes care of my clients so well so that I feel confident in referring them to him.”

“When I scheduled my free consultation with the Dellutri law group, I was scared, worried, and hopeless as a single mother facing a foreclosure due to health issues and normal set backs but I thought I’d at the least, be able to say “I tried”.

The Dellutri group doesn’t make you feel anything but welcomed from the front desk, to the paralegals and attorney’s which was so great because I was fragile mentally and afraid I had no one to help me. From day one the staff was kind, patient, and offered you water or coffee which was great because I felt at home or should I say very welcomed . Aside from the greetings and the hospitality I received from beginning, Carmen Dellutri walked in with a smile, was very polite towards me and my son and made us feel like everything was going to be ok.

I really needed what he provided and that was a step by step review of my options facing foreclosure, making me laugh and smile when I felt like crying as I had been for days wondering when I’d have to leave my home...my pride and our life, it was amazing how well Carmen made all of that worry and all those sleepless nights and tears disappear with kindness, professionalism, and the step by step process. I felt like myself and my children were important to Carmen, he made sure of it and it makes all the difference in the world when you’re a parent facing foreclosure without guidance.

I really think if I was with any other firm or felt any less important I would’ve given up, so a huge thank you to the staff at Dellutri and to Carmen for making me and my little family feel like we had a chance to fight back and did. Since working with the Dellutri Group I have not only been able to sleep at night and been able to focus more positive things like my future, my home, my children, and you cannot ask for more than that in a situation like facing a foreclosure due to no fault of your own.

Dellutri Group reminds you you’re not alone and you’re not just money walking in the door, you’re what they want to help. I would have to describe them, and actually have referred friends and family to the best group I have come in contact with. And yes, I had gone for consults but no one made me feel like me and my children’s home, our foundation, our most valuable asset mattered like this group did. They didn't bring up money before you even walk in like so many other groups have, they listened and helped and went far and beyond to make sure I knew it wasn't just about money for them. They really care about their clients."

"Making the decision for bankruptcy is never an easy one, but knowing it was my only option to relieve me from my financial burden that would only haunt me for years to come, I decided to contact The Dellutri Law Group. Once I made the initial call, I was scheduled for a consult. From the moment I walked in, I was greeted with friendly smiles. I met with one of the attorney's, he made his recommendation and I moved forward with it. Although allot of homework to do, in the end it was worth it. Never once during this process, was I made to feel any less of a person than what I was already feeling inside. There was no pressure or obligation. My interactions with his staff was comforting and they always answered my questions in a timely manner. Carmen himself was at the hearing. I was a little nervous because I hadn't met him prior to the hearing, his demeanor was nothing but professional and his re-assurance of how easy the process would be, made my stress go away. He definitely stands by his clients. In fact, one of his clients came out of the hearing in tears, and that made Carmen visibly upset. Its already embarrassing enough being in the situation, the least the trustee can do is show a little consideration. I'm sure Carmen addressed that afterwards!!!!

I HIGHLY recommend The Dellutri Law Group for ALL of your legal needs. Thanks to all of his staff, but especially to Ashley, Sheila, Lauren, Ronnie, David, the front desk girls and lastly Carmen."

“We were facing losing our home to foreclosure. The Dellutri Law Group immediately put us at ease explaining the whole procedure of what needed to be done. They negotiated a loan modification we could live with. The whole experience with our attorneys from this group was nothing short of excellent. They were warm, kind, never insulting or rude. They took our fears and turned them into something else entirely. The staff was also exceptional.”

I was so pleasantly surprised to find you and everyone on your staff very professional and knowledgeable. My e-mails and phone calls were returned in a timely manner. I sensed that my best interest was the goal. Thank you and your staff for making this experience stress free.”*

B.

My experience regarding the Dellutri Law Group is one of true professionalism. This venture started a few years back when I went in for a consultation with Carmen to discuss my personal options going forward. Naturally, I was embarrassed finding myself in the predicative state I had found myself in and it wasn't easy discussing it with anyone for sure. Carmen, within the first few minutes of our discussion had put me to ease and we talked for approximately an hour, which during that time he heard everything I had to say and then gave his options as to the different directions I could take going forward. I came to the realization that I was going to have to file for bankruptcy even at this older age of 62. Dellutri Law Group has a bankruptcy procedure which leaves nothing to the imagination. Yes, there is a lot of paperwork involved, but all of it is in a format and professionally delivered to the customer.

So, after submitting all the paperwork filled out back to Dellutri, I decided maybe I didn't have to file for bankruptcy after all, so I stopped going forward and thanked Carmen for all his help and assistance in guiding me.

Ok, I know this is long, but I thought the story had to be told to understand it correctly..... we are now 4 years later and unfortunately I did have to file for bankruptcy. I made another consultation appointment with Dellutri Law Group. I was met by Mr. Lampley who was very knowledgeable and I found to be very sensitive to the emotions running thru me. Carmen also join the meeting making it a even more pleasant experience. The decision was made to move forward with the filing.

Now I have to say everything was completed in order and Sheila kept me on track gathering and submitting the paperwork and taking the required classes. Lauren took over after all was submitted and again, very professional. Once she had everything and all the i's were dotted and the T's crossed, the bankruptcy was filed. Carmen met me at the courthouse, which went very smooth.

Robin has now taken over to follow the rest of the process, which in honesty, I don't even notice it's going on.

Can't thank all these people in the firm enough.

My favorite part of the consultation was that Mr. Dellutri was so friendly and fair. I felt that he was going to help me, rather than take advantage of me. I felt at ease...not an easy thing for an attorney to do when one is facing a lawsuit. My Husband and I were in a spot, and we decided to meet with Carmen Dellutri at the Dellutri Law Group. We were under attack by a very aggressive person, and as a young family, we didn't have the resources that we thought we needed to fight back. We did not know where to turn. My Husband had met Mr. Dellutri at a marketing event, and he really liked him. We had heard good things about him and the Dellutri Law Group from others, but, we were skeptical because we thought we had “a unique situation”.

After meeting with Carmen, it was obvious that he wasn't your typical attorney who talked more than he listened. He listened and asked very pointed questions. He got right to the core of our situation. He took the time to listen and understood, and he asked about our family. He helped us make a tough decision by looking at the problem from all angles. It was time well spent. It turns out our situation was a bit unique, but that didn't stop his team from putting in the time to figure out our issues and put together a plan of action.

We were viciously and wrongfully attacked by a person who obtained bad legal advice, but, with Carmen on our side, we were prepared for it, and we had a plan to retaliate. It was actually kind of funny because he warned them not to pursue their plan of attack or we would retaliate in a way that they wouldn't like. It was like Carmen had read their playbook, and it was a comic book. Even better, he gave them a chance to walk away, but they didn't listen. Carmen then told their attorney that we would fight them in both State and Federal Court. Again, they didn't listen. So, we did.

We not only fought back, we sued the bad guy. We literally crushed their silly lawsuit and won ours. It took a while for this to happen, and Carmen and everyone at the firm were very positive and supportive. Most attorneys won't give you a straight answer nowadays. Sure, my Husband and I had a few doubts along the way about whether we were doing the right thing. Let's face it. Lawsuits are scary business. But, every time we called the office or emailed the office with our endless questions, we received a response back right away and our fears were put to rest.

The entire staff at the Dellutri Law Group deserves 5 STARS. Carmen has put together an Amazing Team of Attorneys, Paralegals, Assistants and Administrative personnel. You will be treated like family. You will feel welcomed. Your calls and emails will be returned promptly. If you think you are alone and have no where to turn for help, think again. If you reach out to the Dellutri Law Group, you won't be disappointed. I will turn to Carmen and his team with all of my legal questions, knowing that they will never lead me down the wrong path and will always be by my side.

“I wanted to take a moment to thank Amanda for her guidance and representation during what has become a very difficult chapter in my life. I truly felt that she not only represented me in the utmost professional way, never missing a beat with returned phone calls or messages and jumping through all of the hoops that this case threw at her in spectacular fashion, but she did so with kindness and most of all, integrity. So much integrity, as a matter of fact, that she was instrumental in my decision to pursue my law degree. I had put it off for so many years, but Amanda demonstrated to me that despite the flaws in the legal system itself, that there are still decent, upstanding people who do everything that they can within legal guidelines to help their clients. It was inspiring. This accident has turned my life upside down, but Amanda always found a way to make me feel better...not an easy feat. Just ask her! So, thank you, Amanda, for doing what you do. You are an asset in every sense of the word to this profession and to the people that you serve.”

“My biggest fear was getting my hopes up of possibly getting a settlement from BP and not getting one. My Wife and I made the claim and put it out of our minds, never counting on a positive outcome. The way Dave Lamprey and his associates made the claim process easy. The fee was very reasonable. My Wife was very prepared with financial info though.

Do consult and use the Dellutri Law Group. All Attorneys and staff there really care about the Clients and they really mean well.”

“We needed to say thanks to “ALL” the staff at Dellutri Law Group. Through every stage of our case, the staff explained and answered all our questions. --And they did this right away. Every call was answered or returned within minutes. Every E-mail was answered even if the staff member wasn’t at work, another member monitored her E-mails and supplied the information we needed. Truly, there wasn’t anything else they could do! --- Definitely 5 Stars!”

The receptionists were very polite and the office is very welcoming and comfortable. Carmen really took the time to explain to me what was going on in terms I could understand and what his firm was going to do to fix it. They did everything they said they were going to do and more, which is huge in my book. I was nervous going into this situation but I can’t express enough how happy I am with the results. A huge thank you to everyone at the Dellutri Law Group!!”*

“I want to start out by saying thank you to Carmen and his entire team at the Dellutri Law Group for giving me the opportunity to provided and take care of my family, it means the world to a husband and a father who has struggled to do so for the past 5 years! Since graduating school with my doctorate and over $200,000 in debt, I had to take a job working for another doctor since I could not get a loan from the bank to open my own practice. Long story short, 5 years of being in bad contracts that I should have had someone look over landed me and my family deeper in debt with no hope. My pride had kept me from admitting the truth, we needed to file bankruptcy and we needed a change fast or we were never going to break the cycle of the last 5 years. I met Carmen in a networking group of amazing professionals and we discussed my case.

His entire team made things crystal clear for us about how the process works and what would happen at each step along the way. They listened to our every concern and answered every question, and we had a lot! Very professional. We were able to get the entire bankruptcy wrapped up in a short time and we were now on a path towards rebuilding our life.

We had some complications arise with a prior employment contract and I will say, Carmen and his team handled it in the most professional and effective manner I have seen. Thanks to

Carmen and the Dellutri Law Group, I am now moving on with my life and providing for my family, and as a father and husband, that is one of the most important things I have been entrusted to do.

God has put many people in my life and I am thankful for Carmen and his team. If you have a case that needs legal action and they can take your case, let them walk you through the process. I can tell you there is not another group of attorneys as personal, attentive and successful as the team at Dellutri Law Group. Thank you again for all your help!”

“David Fineman handled my bankruptcy starting in 2011, it went extremely smooth and taught me a lot about me and my spending habits. I am doing so good now I have brought my credit score up without having a credit card. I feel like a better person for the experience. I thank David and DLG for everything.”

"I came in with an issue about an unfair debt collection practice. I was greeted by everyone, not the usual stuffy atmosphere you would expect. The receptionist got me seated in a private consultation room, and offered me coffee, I was taken aback at what a nice presentation the coffee came in on. The attorney Carmen was exceptional, he listened to my issues and was very quick, and discerning on exactly how to proceed. He spent a good 40 min. with me to help me work this out. They never charged me a cent! I can highly recommend this firm for any and all of your legal matters. What a Great Law Group."

“Nearly 15 years ago I found the Dellutri Law Group thanks to a Yellow Pages ad when seeking help for the incredible debt I had accumulated moving out on my own as a 20-year-old. Having newly purchased my first home, I was working two jobs to make ends meet and barely had enough to cover the high-interest rate credit card payments, let alone groceries. After seeking help from Dellutri Law Group, I was honestly amazed that attorney Carmen Dellutri took the time to explain the bankruptcy process the way he did (in a way that did not make me feel even more embarrassed or ashamed about my circumstances). I filed for Chapter 13 and paid off my debts thanks to Carmen and the team at Dellutri Law Group’s advice. All of these years later I am happy to share that my credit score is stellar and I’ve never forgotten the first-class service received by the Dellutri Law Group. We all make mistakes in life and being able to seek help from professionals to
