A Note from Carmen

This month's note comes with a bundle of joy, actually two bundles of joy. Our office manager, Christie Garratt, gave birth to Jackson Matthew Albert Garratt on March 7th. Jackson was 7 lbs 3 oz. and 21 inches. If he is anything like his mom, he has already re-organized his room and put away all of his stuff from the baby shower. Next, he will be taking over the day to day responsibilities at day care and passing out lists to all of the teachers and other little kids with tasks and due dates. I'll bet Little Jackson will even

Wrongful Death Cases

Frequently Asked Questions

The purpose of this blog is to provide some answers to frequently asked questions about wrongful death cases in Florida. At any given moment of any given day, someone in this Country will pass away due to the negligence of another. While this is a horrible thought, unfortunately, it is a fact that we have to live with. When an unfortunate situation arises, a potential wrongful death claim may be possible. But the last thing on the minds of the survivors is hiring a law-firm to pursue a wrongful death claim.

Congratulations Evelyn Ruiz
on becoming a Florida
Registered Paralegal!

Although I have obtained my Associates in Science of Paralegal Studies in 2000 and my Bachelors in Science for Legal Studies in 2003, being registered has allowed me to continue my legal education. I am very excited to be a Florida Registered Paralegal. I pray that in the near future all parale-tasks and due dates. I'll bet Little Jackson will even have a purple folder that we have all grown to dread.

Our second bundle of joy comes from Attorney Amanda Downing. Amanda gave birth to William Oliver Downing on March 19, 2011 in the wee hours of the morning. Up to the time of giving birth, Amanda was texting all that was going on. I'm sure the Doctors and Nurses were wondering what the Personal Injury Attorney was texting about. Hmmm. Most of our clients know that Amanda wastes no time, and that her idea of a day off from work comes but once every three years. So, I am guessing that Little Oliver will be at the office with his mom in no time. He will be sharing his changing table with a personal injury file or two and learning how to negotiate with insurance companies.

I'm glad to say that both Christie, Amanda and the babies are doing great. We are missing them terribly, but glad to say that at our firm: Family Comes First. So, if you get a chance to wish them well, please do so. I'm sure we will have pictures galore of the newest mem-legal education. I am very excited to be a Florida Registered Paralegal. I pray that in the near future all paralegals will need to be registered in order to claim the title. I believe that we need to keep a registry so that we can see where our future lies in this profession. This way the Florida Bar has a handle on any issues that may arise and as such not allow the attorney to be at fault for any complaints that may arise out of particular case. Being registered is a great deal of responsibility and a great way to ensure paralegals legal obligation. I am a proud sponsor of the Florida Bar.
